WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 1.

Killed his Grandchildren.

William Showers, a cigarmaker, aged 59 years, was arrested at Anville, Lebanon county, Pa., Monday night, charged with murdering his two grandchildren, William and Samuel, aged respectively three and five years. The children were the illegitimate offspring of Showers' deceased daughter. Two weeks ago he drove into the mountains with the children in his wagon, and returned without them. Nothing has been heard of them since, and as Showers told many conflicting stories regarding their absence, the district attorney ordered his arrest on the charge of taking their lives, and he was lodged in jail. Search was made for the children, and resulted in finding their bodies buried in Showers' yard, with ropes around their necks. Showers claims to have taken the children from their home to deliver them to a man at Tower City, who was to adopt them, and that while on the way he missed the road and put the little ones out of the carriage while he went to water his horse a quarter of a mile away, and that while he was gone the children disappeared in company with two strangers. He denied all knowledge of the bodies being in the yard. Showers was engaged to marry Elizabeth Sarge, but her one condition was that the children should first be got rid of by placing them in charge of some other person. Failing in this, it is believed that he resorted to murder. Showers later confessed the crime. There is great excitement in the vicinity of Showers' home, and threats of lynching are freely made. When found the bodies of the boys were nude, except their nightshirts, showing that they had been taken from bed and murdered in cold blood. They had been strangled with the ropes found around their necks, and their skulls had been crushed in with a club.

Woman's Face.

"What furniture can give such finish to a room as a tender woman's face," asks George Elliott. Not any, we are happy to answer, provided the glow of health tempers the tender expression. The pale, anxious, bloodless face of the consumptive, or the evident sufferings of the dyspeptic, induce feelings of sorrow and grief on our part and compel us to tell them of "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," the sovereign remedy for consumption and other diseases of the respiratory system as well as dyspepsia and other digestive troubles. Sold everywhere.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it cures the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle. m7-1yrM.W.S.

RUBBER DRESSING COMBS, a fine assortment from the cheapest to the best grades, at my14 AMOS B. SLAYMAKER'S.

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with merchants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other centres.

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention.

Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The GAZETTE'S circulation is steadily increasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition—nearly as large as the daily—is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, apparent.

Alexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY SEVEN YEARS of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become invaluable.

The GAZETTE has better facilities for obtaining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe.

Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning papers.

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with merchants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other centres.

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention.

Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The GAZETTE'S circulation is steadily increasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition—nearly as large as the daily—is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, apparent.
